Can you find...?

1. Big Ben
   Big Ben is really the name of the giant bell inside the clock tower. The tower is called the Elizabeth Tower.
2. London Eye
   The London Eye is 135 metres tall. One full turn takes about 30 minutes.
3. Buckingham Palace
   The King's London home has 775 rooms!
4. Trafalgar Square
   Four giant bronze lions guard Nelson's Column.
5. St Paul's Cathedral
   Whisper against the wall of the Whispering Gallery and someone on the other side can hear you.
6. Tower Bridge
   The middle of the bridge lifts up to let tall ships sail through.
7. Tower of London
   Ravens live at the Tower. Legend says if they ever leave, the kingdom will fall.
8. The Shard
   The tallest building in the UK: 310 metres, with 95 floors.
9. The Gherkin
   Londoners call it the Gherkin because it looks like a pickled cucumber.
10. Natural History Museum
    A giant blue whale skeleton called Hope hangs in the main hall.
11. London Zoo
    Opened in 1828, it's the oldest scientific zoo in the world.
12. Battersea Power Station
    It used to make electricity. Now its four white chimneys stand over shops and restaurants.
